

Sand Springs News

Grace L. King Phone 162

SAND SPRINGS. Dec. 26.—With the exception of three, all students of the Sand Springs High School are on their winter holidays with their families. This school has three teachers in charge: Miss Potter, Miss McGinnis, and Miss Bain. Doctor W. H. Nichols, Dr. C. E. Nichols' son, is here. The 18 students who attend school are Miss Ruth Nixon, senior; Anna Du Cane, junior; Dorothy Nichols, sophomore; Gladys Oberman, Dorothy, and Margaret, junior; Arkansas City, Kate; Marie Wilson, band leader; Paul Jones, Yale; Robert Cook, junior; John Gandy, junior; Charles Thomas Hartley, Sand Springs, Carrollton; Michael Jennings, Columbus, Ohio; and the following former pupils: Frank and Leon Bickford, Tulsa.

The following officers of the Python Club were elected at a meeting held last night, January 1, at the home of Ruth E. C. Ruth Clinton, F. C. Ethel Williams, F. C., Mabel Stanton, J. J. Davis, F. C., and Ruthie Nichols, F. C. The election of R. C. Mabel DeGarmo, M. of P. Steel Adrienne, president; Ned Channing, band master; Dorothy Koenig, treasurer; and the following officers: Finance, Frank and Leon Bickford, Tulsa.

A group of high school girls are camping and boating 18 miles from town, while the rest are at home. Harry Williams, Elmer Cotton, Fred Williams, Ted Johnson, Homer Chapman, Harold Clark, and Fred Marren Hall are among the campers.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Zeigler, 207 N. Washington street, motored to Birmingham, Ala., yesterday morning, en route to the home of Mr. Zeigler's father, they have now returned.

Rev. W. A. Stiles of Haskell, Okla., preached an introductory sermon at the First Christian church last Wednesday evening. Reverend Stiles since has been employed as pastor for 1923.

Mr. Ray Trimble, 200 Garfield, was called to Texas Wednesday by the serious illness of his father, furnisher of Rand springs.

Dr. A. C. Babcock, former pastor of the First Christian church here, will move to the First Methodist Church where he has accepted the pastorate there.

Miss Hazel Headley, North Roosevelt street, has as her guest Miss Lorene Headley of Brainerd, Minn.

Mrs. Jessie Bradley is visiting friends, relatives in Elkhorn City, Iowa, 1918.

Judge C. B. Stewart, principal of the Charles Page and Tommy Atkins case was a Sand Springs business visitor Friday.

Miss Mand Smith of the Sand Springs business section, who recently returned, is returning the holidays.

Mrs. W. E. Brattain, private writer, has returned from a visit to Exeter, Mo.

Mr. and Mrs. L. R. Waddell have returned from Fayetteville, Ark., where they were called by the illness of Mrs. Waddell's mother.

Mrs. Edna Goss Ford is in Atlanta, Ga., for a visit.

Mr. J. C. Douglas and son John, who have positions in Cushing, spent Christmas with home folks.

Mr. and Mrs. L. R. Givens and daughter spent Christmas in Kansas City and St. Joseph, Mo.

New Bonanza Girl of Anadarko, of the O. S. B. society, will be the guest of Reverend Fletcher of the St. Patrick's church, 201 W. 21st, on January 1.

Mrs. Bert Sutin was called to Broken Arrow on Thursday by the illness of relatives.

Mrs. Margaret Gaspar will return to the A. & M. college at Stillwater, after visiting her sister, Mrs. Paul Oake, in the Redlands.

H. E. Sather of Oklahoma City, husband of Mrs. H. E. Sather, and Mrs. Sather were holiday guests of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Oake, 213 North Garfield street.

Lawrence White, student of the Phil. University at Enid and who spent the holiday vacation with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. E. Sather, will return to the Redlands.

Mrs. Helen Terry is expected to return from a two week visit with her mother at Lucerne, Mo., the first of the coming week.

A. J. Beamer of Kansas City is visiting his aunt, Mrs. H. E. Graves.

John Buckford, assistant superintendent of the Buckford Oil Corporation, and Mrs. Buckford and daughter, Miss Teresa, left Saturday morning for a vacation in the mountains. They will be gone for a few days. They were accompanied by Mr. Buckford's mother, Mrs. M. Q. Buckford, and his brother, Mr. H. C. Buckford, who was returning to their home after attending the funeral of the brothers' father, which took place last Tuesday.

The Altar Society of the St. Patrick's church will meet Thursday at the home of Mrs. Main, 287 North Roosevelt street.

Joe Burke of the Sand Springs Motor company and son, Lawson, have been critically ill at their home.

Mr. and Mrs. H. D. Graves and daughter, Mary Elizabeth, their dinner guests in the Redlands, will be home Saturday evening.

Mrs. Frank Hammes has returned from a visit with her sister, Mrs. Leo Springer of Topeka, Kan.

Robert Stevens, an employee of the Kerr-Hibbard & Knobles Co., and Miss Odile Gentry were married at 9 o'clock last Sunday morning by Rev. A. A. Kinney, 201 North street, pastor of the Church of God.

Mrs. Edith Jones, 418 North Garland street, were married last Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. H. E. Maxey, 201 Cleveland street, by Rev. A. A. Kinney.

Reverend White, pastor of the M. E. church at Glendale, Okla., and Henry James, son of one of Sand Springs' most prominent men, motored over to attend the Woman's Home Missionary society meeting of the Methodist church in Glendale. The meeting was held in the basement Thursday afternoon. The meeting was divided into three periods: devotional, historical and social. The program was conducted by Reverend White.

Mr. and Mrs. L. R. Roberts were guests to the home of Mr. and Mrs. C. Robert on Friday during Christmas.

Mr. and Mrs. Harold Stewart and daughter, Dorothy, are back home in Tulsa, with Mrs. Stewart's parents.

Reverend Penney and wife had their first child, a boy, born in the Redlands.

Mrs. Mabel Martin has returned to Fort Worth, Texas, to take up her studies in nursing. She will be home for the holidays with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. U. D. Martin.

Reverend Scott, pastor of the First Baptist church of children, will preach at the Broadway Baptist church here the first Sunday night in January.

Mr. and Mrs. Tom Cody, 517 Roosevelt street, are the parents of a new baby, Charles Edward, born December 25.

Mrs. Clarence Green, North McElroy, was the delightful hostess to the Wednesdays Evening Bridge club, when she entertained 25 guests with a 3 course dinner Wednesday in her newly new home.

Mr. John Middleton entertained the O. S. B. bridge club at his home, 400 Washington, Wednesday night.

Mrs. Ethel Shepard and daughter, Miss Almeda, of Fort Worth, Texas, and Mrs. Ethel, wife of the Rev. W. H. Shepard, are visiting the Dicksens.

Misses Ruth Nixon, senior; Anna Du Cane, junior; Dorothy Nichols, sophomore; Gladys Oberman, Dorothy, and Margaret, junior; Arkansas City, Kate; Marie Wilson, band leader; Paul Jones, Yale; Robert Cook, junior; John Gandy, junior; Charles Thomas Hartley, Sand Springs, Carrollton; Michael Jennings, Columbus, Ohio; and the following former pupils: Frank and Leon Bickford, Tulsa.

The following officers of the Python Club were elected at a meeting held last night, January 1, at the home of Ruth E. C. Ruth Clinton, F. C. Ethel Williams, F. C., Mabel Stanton, J. J. Davis, F. C., and Ruthie Nichols, F. C. Steel Adrienne, president; Ned Channing, band master; Dorothy Koenig, treasurer; and the following officers: Finance, Frank and Leon Bickford, Tulsa.

A group of high school girls are camping and boating 18 miles from town, while the rest are at home. Harry Williams, Elmer Cotton, Fred Williams, Ted Johnson, Homer Chapman, Harold Clark, and Fred Marren Hall are among the campers.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Zeigler, 207 N. Washington street, motored to Birmingham, Ala., yesterday morning, en route to the home of Mr. Zeigler's father, they have now returned.

Rev. W. A. Stiles of Haskell, Okla., preached an introductory sermon at the First Christian church last Wednesday evening. Reverend Stiles since has been employed as pastor for 1923.

Mr. Ray Trimble, 200 Garfield, was called to Texas Wednesday by the serious illness of his father, furnisher of Rand springs.

Dr. A. C. Babcock, former pastor of the First Christian church here, will move to the First Methodist Church where he has accepted the pastorate there.

Miss Katherine Goodine, owner of the ladies' novelty shop at 221 South Second, Tulsa, Music, games and novelties are the principal items offered.

Miss Hazel Headley, North Roosevelt street, has as her guest Miss Lorene Headley of Brainerd, Minn.

Mrs. Jessie Bradley is visiting friends, relatives in Elkhorn City, Iowa, 1918.

Judge C. B. Stewart, principal of the Charles Page and Tommy Atkins case was a Sand Springs business visitor Friday.

Miss Mand Smith of the Sand Springs business section, who recently returned, is returning the holidays.

Mrs. W. E. Brattain, private writer, has returned from a visit to Exeter, Mo.

Mr. and Mrs. L. R. Waddell have returned from Fayetteville, Ark., where they were called by the illness of Mrs. Waddell's mother.

Mrs. Edna Goss Ford is in Atlanta, Ga., for a visit.

Mr. J. C. Douglas and son John, who have positions in Cushing, spent Christmas with home folks.

Mr. and Mrs. L. R. Givens and daughter spent Christmas in Kansas City and St. Joseph, Mo.

New Bonanza Girl of Anadarko, of the O. S. B. society, will be the guest of Reverend Fletcher of the St. Patrick's church, 201 W. 21st, on January 1.

Mrs. Bert Sutin was called to Broken Arrow on Thursday by the illness of relatives.

Mrs. Margaret Gaspar will return to the A. & M. college at Stillwater, after visiting her sister, Mrs. Paul Oake, in the Redlands.

H. E. Sather of Oklahoma City, husband of Mrs. H. E. Sather, and Mrs. Sather were holiday guests of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Oake, 213 North Garfield street.

Lawrence White, student of the Phil. University at Enid and who spent the holiday vacation with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. E. Sather, will return to the Redlands.

Mrs. Helen Terry is expected to return from a two week visit with her mother at Lucerne, Mo., the first of the coming week.

A. J. Beamer of Kansas City is visiting his aunt, Mrs. H. E. Graves.

John Buckford, assistant superintendent of the Buckford Oil Corporation, and Mrs. Buckford and daughter, Miss Teresa, left Saturday morning for a vacation in the mountains. They will be gone for a few days. They were accompanied by Mr. Buckford's mother, Mrs. M. Q. Buckford, and his brother, Mr. H. C. Buckford, who was returning to their home after attending the funeral of the brothers' father, which took place last Tuesday.

The Altar Society of the St. Patrick's church will meet Thursday at the home of Mrs. Main, 287 North Roosevelt street.

Joe Burke of the Sand Springs Motor company and son, Lawson, have been critically ill at their home.

Mr. and Mrs. H. D. Graves and daughter, Mary Elizabeth, their dinner guests in the Redlands, will be home Saturday evening.

Mrs. Frank Hammes has returned from a visit with her sister, Mrs. Leo Springer of Topeka, Kan.

Robert Stevens, an employee of the Kerr-Hibbard & Knobles Co., and Miss Odile Gentry were married at 9 o'clock last Sunday morning by Rev. A. A. Kinney, 201 North street, pastor of the Church of God.

Mrs. Edith Jones, 418 North Garland street, were married last Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. H. E. Maxey, 201 Cleveland street, by Rev. A. A. Kinney.

Reverend White, pastor of the M. E. church at Glendale, Okla., and Henry James, son of one of Sand Springs' most prominent men, motored over to attend the Woman's Home Missionary society meeting of the Methodist church in Glendale. The meeting was held in the basement Thursday afternoon. The meeting was divided into three periods: devotional, historical and social. The program was conducted by Reverend White.

Mr. and Mrs. Tom Cody, 517 Roosevelt street, are the parents of a new baby, Charles Edward, born December 25.

Mrs. Clarence Green, North McElroy, was the delightful hostess to the Wednesdays Evening Bridge club, when she entertained 25 guests with a 3 course dinner Wednesday night in her newly new home.

Mr. John Middleton entertained the O. S. B. bridge club at his home, 400 Washington, Wednesday night.

Mrs. Ethel Shepard and daughter, Miss Almeda, of Fort Worth, Texas, and Mrs. Ethel, wife of the Rev. W. H. Shepard, are visiting the Dicksens.

Misses Ruth Nixon, senior; Anna Du Cane, junior; Dorothy Nichols, sophomore; Gladys Oberman, Dorothy, and Margaret, junior; Arkansas City, Kate; Marie Wilson, band leader; Paul Jones, Yale; Robert Cook, junior; John Gandy, junior; Charles Thomas Hartley, Sand Springs, Carrollton; Michael Jennings, Columbus, Ohio; and the following former pupils: Frank and Leon Bickford, Tulsa.

The following officers of the Python Club were elected at a meeting held last night, January 1, at the home of Ruth E. C. Ruth Clinton, F. C. Ethel Williams, F. C., Mabel Stanton, J. J. Davis, F. C., and Ruthie Nichols, F. C. Steel Adrienne, president; Ned Channing, band master; Dorothy Koenig, treasurer; and the following officers: Finance, Frank and Leon Bickford, Tulsa.

A group of high school girls are camping and boating 18 miles from town, while the rest are at home. Harry Williams, Elmer Cotton, Fred Williams, Ted Johnson, Homer Chapman, Harold Clark, and Fred Marren Hall are among the campers.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Zeigler, 207 N. Washington street, motored to Birmingham, Ala., yesterday morning, en route to the home of Mr. Zeigler's father, they have now returned.

Rev. W. A. Stiles of Haskell, Okla., preached an introductory sermon at the First Christian church last Wednesday evening. Reverend Stiles since has been employed as pastor for 1923.

Mr. Ray Trimble, 200 Garfield, was called to Texas Wednesday by the serious illness of his father, furnisher of Rand springs.

Dr. A. C. Babcock, former pastor of the First Christian church here, will move to the First Methodist Church where he has accepted the pastorate there.

Mrs. Frank Hammes has returned from a visit with her sister, Mrs. Leo Springer of Topeka, Kan.

Robert Stevens, an employee of the Kerr-Hibbard & Knobles Co., and Miss Odile Gentry were married at 9 o'clock last Sunday morning by Rev. A. A. Kinney, 201 North street, pastor of the Church of God.

Mrs. Edith Jones, 418 North Garland street, were married last Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. H. E. Maxey, 201 Cleveland street, by Rev. A. A. Kinney.

Reverend White, pastor of the M. E. church at Glendale, Okla., and Henry James, son of one of Sand Springs' most prominent men, motored over to attend the Woman's Home Missionary society meeting of the Methodist church in Glendale. The meeting was held in the basement Thursday afternoon. The meeting was divided into three periods: devotional, historical and social. The program was conducted by Reverend White.

Mr. and Mrs. Tom Cody, 517 Roosevelt street, are the parents of a new baby, Charles Edward, born December 25.

Mrs. Clarence Green, North McElroy, was the delightful hostess to the Wednesdays Evening Bridge club, when she entertained 25 guests with a 3 course dinner Wednesday night in her newly new home.

Mr. John Middleton entertained the O. S. B. bridge club at his home, 400 Washington, Wednesday night.

Mrs. Ethel Shepard and daughter, Miss Almeda, of Fort Worth, Texas, and Mrs. Ethel, wife of the Rev. W. H. Shepard, are visiting the Dicksens.

Misses Ruth Nixon, senior; Anna Du Cane, junior; Dorothy Nichols, sophomore; Gladys Oberman, Dorothy, and Margaret, junior; Arkansas City, Kate; Marie Wilson, band leader; Paul Jones, Yale; Robert Cook, junior; John Gandy, junior; Charles Thomas Hartley, Sand Springs, Carrollton; Michael Jennings, Columbus, Ohio; and the following former pupils: Frank and Leon Bickford, Tulsa.

The following officers of the Python Club were elected at a meeting held last night, January 1, at the home of Ruth E. C. Ruth Clinton, F. C. Ethel Williams, F. C., Mabel Stanton, J. J. Davis, F. C., and Ruthie Nichols, F. C. Steel Adrienne, president; Ned Channing, band master